FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 20, 2018

“The John G. Riley Museum Will Rock into the Holiday season with its 19th Annual Culture to Culture Rock-A-Thon Celebration”

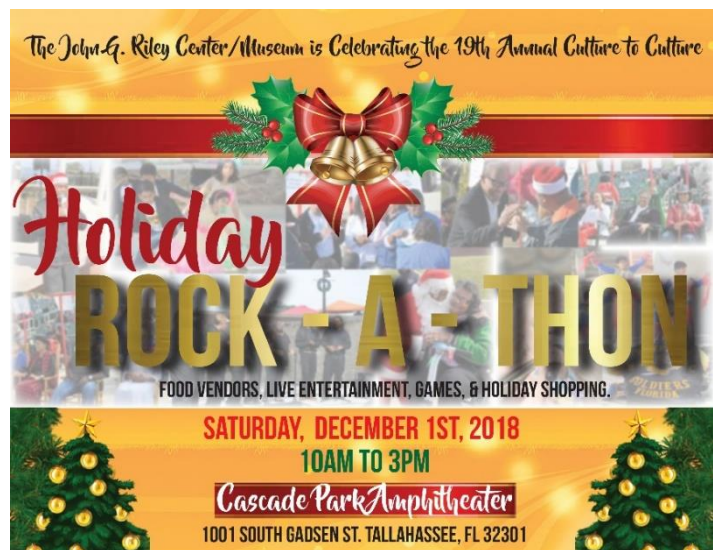

(TALLAHASSEE) – The public is invited to celebrate the Holidays and raise memberships for the John G. Riley Center and Museum on Saturday, December 1, 2018 from 10:00am to 3:00pm at the Capital City Cascades Park Amphitheater. (1001 S. Gadsden St., Tallahassee, FL 32301)

The Rock-a-Thon is the museum's annual rocking chair marathon and membership drive that supports annual operations and upkeep of the historic Riley House. For the past 19 years the Rock-a-Thon has become an important aspect of our community’s holiday tradition and features performances from some of Tallahassee’s most notable arts and cultural organizations.

The event will feature live performances on the amphitheater stage, children's activities, such as face-painting and an interactive reptile experience, as well as a holiday marketplace with a fantastic assortment of handcrafted merchandise and food to fulfill all your holiday shopping needs. The Riley House will also provide shuttle transportation for guests to experience discounted guided tours of the new exhibit by Ken Falana: Six Decades an Across Town Collaboration.

The special holiday treats and variety of food + food trucks are what makes Rock-a-Thon one of Tallahassee’s best events to enjoy cultural enrichment. 96.1 Jamz radio personality, the world-famous Joe Bullard, will emcee this fun-filled family event with his 90.5 cohost personality Kristian Thomas.
